Bourque 60

26 November 1965

Mr. and Mrs. Valmore V. Bourque
381 N. Main Street
South Hadley Falls, Mass

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bourque:

Thank you for your kind card of November 18 and the warm wishes inclosed therein.

In response to your question concerning my sister's address, you may contact her by writing to:

Mrs. Marvin Schultheiss
525 London
Rockford, Illinois

You certainly are most kind to want to write and thank her and although I'm sure she does not expect it, I know she would nonetheless appreciate it very much. As you may recall, Dorothy was quite "taken" with Val when he was at our house for my wedding and was really quite sad at his death. I know that she took the time to tell many of the people in her parish how much Val had done for them and I know that many of the good people took the time to say prayers for your son.

With regard to your postscript concerning the film, I trust that by now you have received my 12 November 65 letter in which I inclosed the film and nine photos from the funeral. If for some reason you have not received them I would certainly appreciate hearing from you. On the other hand if I do not hear from you in the near future I will assume that they arrived safely.

Please give my best regards to all the Bourques.

Sincerely,

RICHARD T. MATHEWS
