John Charles Hauschildt
Class of 1962
7th Squadron

Date of Birth: 20 February 1938
Home Town: Chicago, IL

1st Lieutenant John C. Hauschildt was killed on 5 October 1965 while on a pre-strike mission in South Vietnam. The F-100 aircraft he was piloting went on an ordinance run and crashed and exploded. Hostile ground fire was in the area, but specific cause of the accident is unknown.

Loss narrative compiled by Paula Simon, Association of Graduates volunteer, Fall 2005.