Graduate Awarded Posthumous Medal

A 1962 Academy graduate—1st Lt. John C. Hauschildt—has been awarded posthumously the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Purple Heart, and the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters.

The awards, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Hauschildt of 6700 S. Oglesby, Chicago, parents of the deceased lieutenant, were for service performed in Southeast Asia.

Lieutenant Hauschildt was an advisor pilot aboard an F-100 aircraft when he was killed on Oct. 5, 1965. He was a member of the 481st Tactical Fighter Squadron in Vietnam.

Other decorations received by Lieutenant Hauschildt during his three years of active duty include the National Defense Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, and the Republic of Vietnam award.

Lieutenant Hauschildt is buried in the Academy Cemetery.
