Dear Sir:

On 5 October 1965 Lt John C. Hauschildt, Class of 1962 and a former member of the 7th Cadet Squadron, was killed while on an F-100 bombing mission in South Vietnam. In the process of an ordnance delivery against an enemy target John's aircraft struck the ground and exploded, for rearons still undetermined. At that time, although every possible effort was made, remains were not recovered due to intense enemy activity in the vicinity of the crash.

Information received yesterday from Hq USAF has confirmed recent recovery of Lt Hauschildt's body, and arrangements have been made for burial here at the Academy on Monday, 23 May 1966. Graveside retvicer will be held in the Academy Cemetery at 1400. Aware that you and your personnel may well remember Lt Hauschildt as one of your studentr, the Association of Graduate8 wishes to extend to you a request for the presence of any who may wish to attend the burial services.

Regretfully,

Richard T. Matthews
