Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wax:

I sincerely regret the necessity to write this letter, to express to you the regrets of this Command on the loss of your son, David.

Like his many friends still here at the Academy - officers and cadets - I was hoping that his "missing in action" status from last December was a ray of hope. I personally share your remorse at the recent confirmation of his death.

I didn't have the opportunity to know your son, but I am well aware of the extensive contribution which he and his classmates have made and will continue to make in Vietnam and around the world. There is so little that I can say to ease the loss. Yet I do wish to let you know that we look upon Dave's efforts with the same pride he held for his profession. No one can give more than your son gave for all of us; few will ever give as much.

Again, my personal regrets. My staff and I are at your disposal should you need assistance. Please feel free to call on us at any time, or to visit the Academy as you wish.

Regretfully,

Signed

THOMAS S. MOORMAN, Lt General, USAF
Superintendent
