WAX, David J.
Class of 1963
First Lieutenant

- killed on 20 December 1965 as a C-130 copilot which crashed in the process of making the landing approach about 4 miles from Tuy Hoa AB, Vietnam after a combat mission
- member of the 345th Troop Carrier Squadron
- status officially changed to KIA on 19 February 1966
- body not recovered until 28 years later
- as a cadet, served as a flight commander and an athletic officer
- name is on the Massachusetts Vietnam Veteran's Memorial and a Memorial Square (an intersection) was dedicated to him
- name is on the USAFA War Memorial

Bullets compiled by Heather Beer, Association of Graduates intern, Summer 2005.