ADAMS 63

17 June 1966

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Adams:

On behalf of the officers and men of this Command, I wish to extend our sincere regrets at the loss of your son Lee. I would have much preferred an opportunity to commend him for his fine performance in accomplishing our primary job in Southeast Asia. Regretfully, I will not have that privilege. Rest assured, however, that we are indeed proud of him. Many of the officers who graduated this past week were trained by your son when he was a First Classman. I am sure that they share our fine opinion of him.

I trust that you will consider yourselves welcome at the Academy should you care to visit us. My staff and I are at your disposal should you wish our assistance.

Regretfully,

THOMAS S MOORMAN, Lt General, USAF
Superintendent
