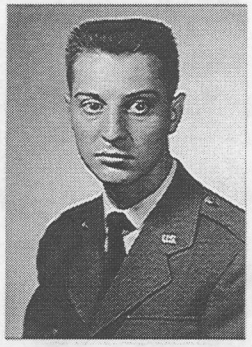
LEE AARON ADAMS
Class of 1963
16th Squadron

Lieutenant Lee A. Adams was reported MIA on 19 April 1966 when the F-105 he was piloting encountered hostile fire. His status was changed to KIA on 26 April 1966. Prior to attending the Academy, he earned an AA degree in aeronautics from Santa Rosa Junior College in Santa Rose, California. He was survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clive L. Adams.

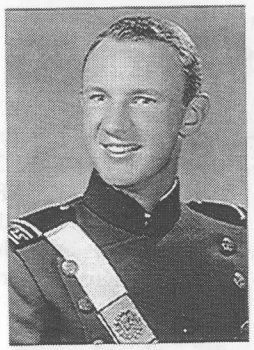


JOHN FRANCIS ARCENEAUX
Class of 1963
19th Squadron

Lieutenant John F. Arceneaux was killed when the C-124 he was copiloting crashed near Granada, Spain on 12 February 1966. He was assigned to the 15th MAS at Hunter Army Airfield, Georgia and was TDY to Spain in support of the search for a missing nuclear weapon. He was survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn V. Arceneaux.

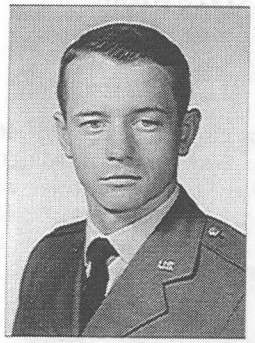
JAMES B. BROOKS
Class of 1963
6th Squadron

Mr. James B. Brooks died on 19 February 1990 in Utah. As a pilot he earned the Silver Star and four Distinguished Flying Crosses in Vietnam. Later, he was a special agent in the FBI. He was survived by four daughters.



PARK GEORGE BUNKER
Class of 1963
18th Squadron

Captain Park G. Bunker was killed when the 0-1 aircraft he was piloting was shot down by communist gunners on 30 December 1970. Capt. Bunker had been serving in Laos as an assistant to the embassy air attache. Following graduation he served as a B-52 aircraft commander at Kincheloe AFB, Michigan. In 1968, he was the distinguished graduate at Squadron Officers School in Montgomery, Alabama. The following year he attended Aerospace Research Pilot School at Edwards AFB, California. He was survived by his wife, Janet; son, Gary; and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Bunker.



DOUGLAS HOLMAN BUTTERFIELD
Class of 1963
11th Squadron

Captain Douglas H. Butterfield was killed on 5 June 1967 while on a visual reconnaissance mission in South Vietnam. He was survived by his wife, Alison; daughter, Margaret; and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson B. Butterfield.

THOMAS OSCAR CARLSON
Class of 1963
15th Squadron

Captain Thomas O. Carlson was killed on 1 October 1969 when the F-105 he was piloting collided with an F-4D. Capt. Carlson was stationed at McConnell AFB, Kansas. Prior to this assignment, he served with the 355th TFW at Takhli Royal Thai AB, Thailand where he was awarded the Air Medal. He was survived by his wife, Ann, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Carlson.