RALSTON, Frank D., III
Class of 1963
Major

- killed on 14 May 1966 (officially MIA until 9 January 1978) as an F-4C Phantom II copilot on an armed reconnaissance mission
- not exactly known what happened, but others reported seeing a white flash
- had flown missions in the most hazardous conditions, including frequent exposure to enemy fire
- earned awards, including the AM
- as a cadet, served as flight information officer and flight commander
- name is on the USAFA War Memorial

Bullets compiled by Heather Beer, Association of Graduates intern, Summer 2005