WEBB AFB, Tex.--Second Lieutenant Frank D. Ralston III of Denver, Colo., has entered United States Air Force pilot training here.

Lieutenant Ralston will fly the newest Air Force jet trainers and receive special academic and military training during the year-long course. He will be awarded the silver wings of a pilot upon graduation.

The lieutenant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Ralston of 574 Humboldt, Denver. He was commissioned earlier this year upon graduation from the U. S. Air Force Academy.
