

The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library

What is The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library? Why Contribute?

The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library is a group of alumni and friends working with librarians and administrators in a variety of efforts to enhance the quality of the McDermott Library as an educational, research, scientific and cultural institution. The Friends work to acquire, preserve and publish materials that capture the rich heritage and tradition of our Air Force and Air Force Academy.

Major Publications of the Friends of the AFA Library:
The Genesis of Flight, acclaimed book on the Gimbel Aeronautical History Collection (now interactive, on-line)
Biography of Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon, the Father of the Air Force Academy
Falconry at the United States Air Force Academy
Expect Great Things, DVD of the Academy's first 50 yrs

Patron donations directly support some of the most important needs of the McDermott Library:
Organizing, preserving and cataloging significant historic documents in the Clark Special Collections Branch
Digitizing important collections for easy on-line access by cadets and scholars (over 10,000 images this year)
Placement on our web site of information on the graduates listed on the Academy War Memorial Wall, POWs and Jabara Award winners (now over 40,000 pages)
Acquiring significant collections of personal papers
