

TO HONOR

LLOYD R. SHOEMAKER

1921 – 1995

Lloyd Shoemaker was a member of the Utah National Guard which was called to active duty during WWII. He served in the CBI theater and was captured by the Japanese. He escaped and was assigned to the Military Intelligence Service. He wrote The Escape Factory which described MI assistance to POWs in Europe during WWII. He was an honorary member of the Stalag Luft III Ex POW Association.

BY: WAYNE JENSEN, KEN NARDINGER AND VONZA DASH