

TO HONOR

R. R. MOSER KIA

Lieutenant, U. S. Army Air Forces

Lieutenant Moser was the bombardier on a B-17 of the 427th Squadron, 303rd Bomb Group which, on 23 January 1943 after bombing the submarine pens at Lorient, France, was shot down over Brest by an FW-190. He was killed by a shell from the first pass by the enemy aircraft. He is buried at St. James American Cemetery, St. Lo, France.

By: Charles R. Grice, Navigator on his crew