

TO HONOR

ALL FIGHTER ACES

IN ALL WARS

The fighter pilots who achieved five or more victories in combat are a rare and elite group of flyers. They all had to be volunteers for one of the most dangerous forms of individual combat. They lived or died depending on their skill, courage, and aggressive spirit. They all deserve our respect as they have carried the dream of flight to uncommonly high levels of achievement.

By Kenneth H. Dahlberg