

TO HONOR

GORDON A. SUMMERS

COLONEL, U. S. AIR FORCE

1920 - 1997

Gordon Summers was born and raised in Massachusetts. He was a pilot in the 94th Bomb Group, W. W. II. He was shot down on June 13, 1943 and became a prisoner of war in Stalag Luft III and VIIA until April, 1945. He served in the Air Force with distinction until retirement in 1972. His second career was in optometry. He was a distinguished member and president of several optometric associations in Topeka, Kansas, where he married Bertha Louise Logan in 1945 and practiced optometry for almost 50 years.

By his many friends and colleagues.
