

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

FORREST F. CARHART, JR.

Mr Forrest F. Carhart, Jr. was a member of the original staff of the US Air Force Academy's Robert F. McDermott Academic Library. His professional association with the library began in the spring of 1955 at the Academy's initial site at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, several months before the first cadets arrived. As the highly esteemed Chief of the Public Services Division, he helped to establish the present library at the Academy's permanent site in 1958. Mr. Carhart left the Academy in 1959 to accept an appointment as Assistant Director of the American Library Association's Library Technology Project. He subsequently served as Director of the ALA's Office for Research and Development and as Executive Director of the New York Metropolitan Reference and Research Library Agency. Mr. Carhart died on January 7, 2005.

By: Donald and June Barrett and Charles A. Gardner