

TO HONOR

DR. DONALD H. WHITE, PH.D.

Born in Pennsylvania in 1921, Donald White graduated from Temple University then enlisted in the Army Aviation Cadet Program in May 1942. Trained as a Navigator, he served in England with the 306th Bomb Group from November 1942 until shot down after 19 missions. A prisoner of War of the Germans from March 1944, he was liberated in April 1945.

After the war, Don earned a Ph.D. from the Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester, 1952. He then served as Director of Music, DePauw University. In 1981 he was selected Chairman, Department of Music, Central Washington University. After teaching forty years, he retired in 1991.

Dr. White composed and published numerous well received and widely performed works of music. Since his retirement, he has been an active, contributing member of the The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library and continues to present musical appreciation programs for friends and associates.

By: The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library