

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

ANN SHERMAN FITZPATRICK

1924-2006

Ann Sherman Fitzpatrick was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Married for over sixty-three years to a career naval officer, she accompanied her husband to shore assignments in Brazil, Portugal, and the United States, and cared devotedly for their children when he served at sea. She was a graduate of the Holton Arms School in Bethesda, Maryland, and a member of the Society of the Mayflower Descendents, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a Dame of the Society of St. Lazarus. She was the daughter of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, a former Chief of Naval Operations, and recently sponsored the commissioning of a destroyer named in his honor. Mrs. Fitzpatrick died on July 2, 2006. She is survived by her husband, Commander John P. Fitzpatrick, USN (Ret.), a son and three daughters, twelve grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

BY: COLONEL WILLIAM B. TAYLOR, III, USAF (RET.)