TO HONOR

MARCOS E. KINEVAN

BRIGADIER GENERAL, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE, USMA 1947
1924-2008

Brigadier General Marcos E. Kinevan enlisted in the US Army early in World War II. Selected for officer's training, he graduated from West Point in 1947 and chose to be commissioned in the new US Air Force. After completing studies at the University California Law School, he served in various assignments as a member of the Air Force Staff Judge Advocate Corps. In 1967 he began a twenty-one year appointment as Permanent Professor and Head of the Department of Law at the Air Force Academy. During his long tenure with the Law Department, he developed highly popular courses on personal financial planning and authored an acclaimed book on that subject. An ardent supporter of Falcon athletics, he served as the Officer Representative for the varsity football team for over twenty years and never missed a single game. General Kinevan died on 25 July 2008. He is survived by two children, four grandchildren, and a host of admirers.
