

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

MARCOS E. KINEVAN

BRIG. GENERAL, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE, USMA 1947
1924-2008

Brigadier Marcos E. Kinevan was an innovative military leader of great vision, steadfast integrity, high intelligence, and remarkable energy. A veteran of World War II and for over twenty years the Permanent Professor and Head of the Law Department at the Air Force Academy, his interests spanned the spectrum from jurisprudence to sports to military history. He served his country faithfully and with true distinction. General Kinevan is survived by two children and four grandchildren. His son, Mark Kinevan, is a vice president of The Energy Authority (TEA) of Jacksonville, Florida. Embodying the personal qualities exemplified by his father, Mark Kinevan's leadership, wisdom, and commitment to excellence have been instrumental to the sustained success of TEA.

By: Employees of the Energy Authority