

TO HONOR

JOE GRICE CABUK, JR.

COLONEL, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE, USAFA, 1963
1941-2009

Colonel Joe Grice Cabuk, Jr. earned his pilot's wings in 1964, flew in combat in Vietnam, and served in a variety of operational and staff assignments in the United States and Europe. Repeatedly selected for operational command, he served as commander of the 390th Tactical Fighter Squadron, Mountain Home AFB; vice wing commander of the 20th Tactical Fighter Wing at RAF Upper Heyford, and commander of the 513th Tactical Airlift Wing at RAF Mildenhall. He was the Assistant Director of Operations for the NATO headquarters in Naples, Italy at the time of his retirement in 1989. He subsequently continued his involvement in aviation, serving as President and General Manager of Legacy Aviation in Monroe, Louisiana and later as Chief Pilot and FAA Company Check Airman at the Monroe Air Center. Colonel Cabuk died in April 2009. He is survived by his wife, Marsha, two sons, and two grandchildren.
