

*Man's Flight
Through Life Is Sustained By The Power Of His Knowledge*

TO HONOR

CHARLES R. HAMM,

LT. GENERAL, USAF

For his instrumental service in obtaining the Distinguished Flying Cross for the late Robert James Widmer, Sr. This decoration, which resulted from Mr. Widmer's extraordinary achievement during a B-24 bombing mission during World War II, was presented to the Widmer family by Lt. Gen. Charles R. Hamm. The Widmer family wishes to honor General Hamm for his work and assistance in securing the medal as well as his outstanding contributions made during his distinguished military career to the United States Air Force and the United States of America.

BY: Family Members of Robert James Widmer, Sr.