TO HONOR

TED BARRIS

Ted Barris is an accomplished author, journalist, and broadcaster who also hosts CBC Radio and contributes to the Globe, Mail, and National Post newspapers. He has authored sixteen non-fiction books and is a full-time professor of journalism at Centennial College in Toronto, where in 1999, he reinstituted Remembrance Day activities. His dedication and research has garnered numerous awards, including the commendation awarded by the Minister of Veterans Affairs for Canada noting the exemplary way he has contributed to the remembrance of the sacrifices and achievements of Canadians in armed conflict. The commendation is traditionally awarded to veterans and is rarely given to civilians. His book, "The Great Escape - A Canadian Story," recognizes the significant contribution of Canadian prisoners of war at Stalag Luft III whose work during the Great Escape has often gone unheralded.
