

TO HONOR

BEN VAN DROGENBROEK

Ben van Drogenbroek resides in the Netherlands and is an honorary member of Stalag Luft III. Over the years he has attended many Stalag Luft III reunions, bringing a collection of posters and memorabilia to show attendees. He has researched many of the pictures taken in the camp in order to identify those in the pictures. He is the author of an intensely-researched book on the camp entitled, "The Camera Became My Passport Home: Stalag Luft 3, The Great Escape, The Forced March and the Liberation at Moosburg," which chronicles the memoirs of prisoner of war, Charles Boyd Woehrlé and presents a history of the prisoner of war experience.

By the Stalag Luft III Community
August 2014