TO HONOR

LORRAINE R. BENNETT

Lorraine R. Bennett is a woman of charm, grace, and intelligence. As the wife of the late Colonel John M. Bennett, USAF, she became a seasoned traveler on the challenging road of military life. Undaunted by frequent moves and the hardships of living in distant places, she loyally supported her husband while serving as a role model and trusted counselor for the wives of younger officers. In more recent times and in a different setting, she continues to serve as a source of inspiration and wise counsel to her colleagues on the Board of Directors of The Friends of the Air Force Academy Library.

"She knew the privations, the uncertainties, the dangers, the heartaches, and the joys"
