TO HONOR

MAXWELL V. JUDAS

COLONEL, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE (RETIRED)

Maxwell Judas was an original crew member of the 306th Bomb Group stationed in England during World War II and flew 22 missions from October 1942 to May 1943. On May 21, 1943, 1Lt Judas was shot down while piloting a B-17, tail #42-3214, and became a POW at Stalag Luft III. He eventually was repatriated and continued to serve in the Air Force until he retired as a colonel after 10,000 flying hours and 30 years of service. Dedicated airman, loving husband and father, and exemplary leader.
